Experience and Expertise

Chuck is an invaluable resource to our professional staff and clients, providing advice and solutions gained from his long career of over 45 years.

As a member of our Tax Planning and Compliance Practice, Chuck specializes in corporate and individual taxation, primarily for closely held businesses and their owners. He has extensive experience in the construction, real estate, manufacturing and distribution industries. In addition, Chuck is experienced with tax issues related to private equity and partnership taxation.

His expertise includes providing tax structure for mergers and acquisitions, developing and implementing tax savings strategies for real estate and construction entities, advice on choice of entity and structuring and representation of clients before the Internal Revenue Service at both the field agent and appellate levels.

Prior to joining MWA, Chuck was a tax director for two national CPA firms.
