Experience and Expertise

Sarah, a key member of MWA's Audit and Assurance Practice, has more than 15 years of experience in public accounting. She manages audits, reviews and compilations for nonprofit clients. Sarah's nonprofit experience includes educational institutions, healthcare and social welfare organizations. Sarah has performed single audits under Uniform Guidance as well as other government audits.

Sarah previously worked as an audit manager at a national accounting firm where she was a member of the not-for-profit revenue recognition task force assigned to interpret the new FASB revenue recognition standard for applicability to not-for-profit organizations.

Sarah looks to build and maintain long-term relationships with her clients while communicating financial results and analysis to boards of directors and management.
